THE Ishmaelite of the New York Sun objects to the prayers of Mr. J. G. Hester because he once killed a man when in the Confederate naval service. The Sua says he killed him in "cold blood." Although this is not true, as has been fully proven by Raphael Semmes, Jeff. Davis and Jadah P. Benjamin, we cannot see why it should invalidate Hester's prayers in the eyes of the Prince of Ishmaelites, who obtains his living by soul murder. He who suns daily upon the blood of the innocents, and laces his dirty shoes with their heart strings. torn forth by his diabolical slanders, should not be so stidious about the antecedents of those win choose to labor for his salva-

This sie and comfort which Governo Chamber in has been giving the White Liners in South Carolina has commenced already to bear its fruits. Hear what a South Carolina newspaper says:

"Since these speeches were made by Cham-glain, a terrible outrage upon a poor colored unity has been committed in this county, near Ridge Spring. On Friday night, the 11th instant, twenty-five or thirty masked men visited the house of a poor deienceless colored man, took out the man, his wife and two other nemiters of the family, and leat them unmer members of the family, and local them unmer-cifully. The man's write was stripped, severely whipped, and then three candles were lighted and she was tortured by the drippings of hot scaling wax on her person held over these burning candles. A young female of the fam-ily, in trevail, was brutally used, and it is thought that death will certainly ensue. A young man of the same family was taken out, secretely whipped, and then a piece of flesh cut out of his arm with a razor, and thrown on the ground right before his face. The old man, the head of the family, was whilped almost to death. Is not this deed the result of the teachings of those who ought to be conservators of the peace. These Christian gentlemen, who ought to be teaching morality and loyalty to the Government, instead of exhort-ing the people to violence and bloodshed. It must be remembered that Ridge Spring is the first place in which an outrage was committed in 1874, just before the election in that year. It has taken the lead again in

And yet certain Gushers will persist in lauding Chamberlain to the skies, and ascribe to him great purity of motive for his treacherous policy in South Carolina.

The crazy mountebank who tried some years since to place the Capitol on wheels and trundle it about from year to year to seek the centre of population, has subsided under the storm of ridicule raised by the insane movement, and Washington is likely to remain the seat of legislative and executive power as long | the loyal North that the country is in imas the Republic endures.

Not so, however, with the great centre of material wealth, population and power This has moved steadily towards the West for the last fifty years and has become finally located in the Mississippi valley, the richest and grandest industrial empire on the globe. This vast region, with productive capacity sufficient to feed a starving world, and mineral treasures beyond computation, will soon hold, not morely the balance, but the absolute preponderance of political power in the United States. Would not be graceful, as well as politic and just, for the law-makers of the Eastern and Middle States to rechanize this great fact by such acts of liberal legislation as will tend to preserve unity by distributing evenheaded justice to all .

Nature has given to that vast country meanly twenty thousand miles of navigable streams, but many of these need substantial improvement to give to them full capacity as channels of domestic commerce But water-courses alone will not suffice and many thousand miles of railway already extend up and down and across the great They have an outlet to the Pacific, uncer-

They ask for this measure not only as one of immediate and incalculable benefit to that region, but one that will be of im messe advantage to the whole country Can the representatives from east of the Alleghanies afford to deny the request and ignore the claims of twelve millions of peo

DEMOCRATIC EQUITY - A SPECIMEN BRICK.

If cumulative evidence be necessary to convince the loyal and honest people of the country of the foul deeds to which the rebel Democracy are accustomed to resort in their efforts to obtain power, the Logislature of the once proud Commonwealth of Virg nia daily furnishes sufficient to ratisfy the most skeptical, who love republican institutions, that they have but to permit the Democracy to obtain the ascendancy, to obliterate every vestige of freedom in the expression of opinion at the ballot-box, save when it comports with the ideas of medern Locofoism

The latest evidence of the ease with which this body of Locofoco legislators in Virginia outrage the clearly expressed will of the people in condoning fraudulent elections, was most signally illustrated in the action of the Senate of that State on Thursday in rejecting the claim of Col. W. C. Knight to a seat in that body, to which the evidence so clearly shows he was entitled, and for which even fourteen Democrats were honest enough to vote, thus permitting that prince of "carpetbaggers," "General" Bradley T. Johnson, to misrepresent for four years the people of Richmond, for no other reason than that he was the cendidate of the Locofoco party. Colonel Knight, in his notice of contest served on Mr. Johnson, referring to the frauds at the first precinct of Jefferson ward. Richmond, says : "I shall show that "the judges at said precinct, falsely, fraud-"ulently, corruptly and contrary to law "and duty, certified that out of 403 ballots "deposited at that precinct you (Johnson) "had received 391 votes and I [Knight] vote of 21 to 19, was permitted to retain a seat that had been obtained by and through

The result of Democratic supremacy in Congress may be summed up as follows: One enlogy on Jeff. Davis, one defense of Andersonville, one "honorable hyena," two "Oh dry ups," one "little bub," and a flood of bills. This is not the retrenchment and reform which was promised, but it is only a little worse than was predicted.

J. C. Sheppard, a prominent lawyer of South Carolina, said recently at a large Democratic meeting in that State "that the Democrats must carry the next election if they had to take up their muskets and take off their coats, as white men going to work; that he was ready to put on the bloody shirt and wear it for his liberty's sake." "Oh!" he said, "that the bloody shirt may hang as high as any flag ever floated in the free breeze; that he was ready to mingle his blood in streams in defense of Democratic principles. He did not care how soon the time came for him to assert his rights." This is a doctrine which we heartily deprecate. For some time past, as a strict Republican journal, watching closely the interests of the party in the South, we have been compelled to criticise the course of Gov. Chamberlain, by which he has been sacrificing the welfare of his constituency. His political movements have placed the Democracy on vantage ground, and encouraged them to put on a bold front and sway the sceptre of oppression over the colored race in such a manner as to indicate a positive determination on their part to establish a white man's government in South Carolina. Mr. Sheppard is even willing to take up the musket and pull off his coat to accomplish this end, and, more than that, to mingle his blood in streams in defense of Democratic principles. The majorlty of the white South Carolinians, we hope, do not feel this way. The sons of South Carolina have tried the experiment of spilling their blood in defense of Democratic principles, and it never appeared to us as having been a paying investment. For this reason is is believed that the white people will not heed such dangerous advice as that given by Sheppard.
